Plaintiffs, Daniel D'Ambly, Aaron Wolkind; Steven Hartley; Richard Schwetz; Jobel Barbosa; Matthew Reidinger; John Hugo; Sean-Michael David Scott; Dean David Van Zandt, Jr.; Thomas Louden; Steven Rosati; Zachary Rehl; Amanda Rehl; K.R. a minor, by and through her father Zachary Rehl and her mother Amanda Rehl (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Plaintiffs") by and through their attorney the Law Office of Patrick Trainor, as and for their

Complaint against defendants Christian Exoo a/k/a @AntifashGordon, St. Lawrence University, Tribune Publishing Company, LLC, New York Daily News, Vijaya Gadde, Twitter, Inc., and Cohen, Weiss, and Simon, LLP, hereby alleges as follows:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This action arises out of the repugnant conduct of defendant Christian Exoo (Hereinafter “Exoo”), an extortionist, known habitual doxer, and member of Antifa, who associates with others to conduct patterns of racketeering activities. Exoo under the Twitter username “@AntiFashGordon” directs his associates in the “Exoo Enterprise” to conduct violent and extortionate patterns of racketeering activities devoted to “doxing” complete strangers that the Exoo Enterprise has labeled “fascists” and/or “white supremacists.” To “dox” someone means to publicly disclose a person’s identity, employer, school, home address, etc., for the purpose of causing harm to that person. Once the target has been doxed, Exoo directs enterprise associates to commence a pattern of violent and threatening emails, Tweets, and phone calls to the target’s employers, professional clients, schools, prospective employers, or schools to extort the target’s termination from employment, expulsion from school, and compel the targets exit from society.

To execute their plan, enterprise associates engage in a practice referred to as “dogpiling,” which is to conduct an all-out attack on both their target’s employer and co-workers by flooding them with emails and phone calls and plastering negative messages and comments throughout their entire online footprint, including Google reviews, Facebook posts, LinkedIn posts, Twitter, etc., to label the employer a fascist, white supremacist company and the target’s co-workers as the same. Associates conspire to ruin the target’s employer’s existing business relationships and/or shame prospective clients from conducting business with them until their target is terminated.

Exoo is aware of the potential illegality of his directives, because he instructs his associates to use telephone *67 feature to block their phone numbers when making threatening calls.

On varied dates and times beginning in 2017, Exoo identified Plaintiffs as fascists and white supremacists. Thereafter, Exoo directed enterprise associates to stalk Plaintiffs in order to learn their true identity. Upon discovering Plaintiffs identity, Exoo directed associates to deluge Plaintiffs' employers with violent Tweets, phone calls, emails that threatened personal and physical harm to the employer's property and co-workers, in order to extort Plaintiffs' terminations. Exoo unmistakably directs the enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities through interstate communications.

One-person hellbent on destroying the lives of other persons, conspires with, participates in, and directs an enterprise that engages in patterns of racketeering activities every day by using interstate communications to threaten physical violence to extort and cause harm to their target. The enterprise's associates and co-conspirators include, a major religious university, top lawyer of a publicly traded corporation and the publicly traded corporation. Enterprise associates are motivated by a shared disdain of people labeled fascists and white supremacists.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24. Jurisdiction of this Court is proper because this litigation arises under federal law, namely 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961 to 1968. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

25. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims asserted in this case under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

26. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this District, and the threatened and actual harm occurred in this District by reason of Defendants' conduct as alleged below.

FACTS PERTINENT TO ALL PLAINTIFFS

27. Defendant Exoo publishes Tweets and doxes other persons private and undisclosed information under Twitter username “@AntiFashGordon” the leading Antifa Twitter account that as of December 30, 2020, has 46,140 followers. The headline of @AntiFashGordon's public profile states “I expose fascists via #OSINT, get them fired, de-homed, kicked out of school, etc.” Exoo's definition of fascists and white supremacists is indiscernible, because he uses the terms broadly and interchangeably. Based on the substance of @AntiFashGordon's Tweets he broadly identifies all persons who do not share his radical far left political ideology as fascists and/or white supremacists.

28. Upon information and belief, Exoo is known to Twitter's Trust & Safety Council (“TSC”) as a habitual doxer and ban evader. A ban evader is a person who creates a new Twitter account after receiving a permanent ban. The ban evader's new account is called a “ban evasion account,” and is prohibited by Twitter rules.² A permanent ban means a lifetime ban.

29. Doxing is prohibited by Twitter's Private Information Policy within their Terms of Service and Rules (“TOS”).³

30. Upon information and belief, in addition to Twitter's agreement to allow Exoo to change username @DoxSavage to @AntiFashGordon, Exoo has had two Twitter accounts

permanently banned for doxing. Twitter has previously permanently banned @ChrisExoo,⁴ @ChristianExoo.⁵

31. Exoo directs associates in an enterprise that uses interstate communications to conduct patterns of racketeering activities.

32. Of their own volition, Exoo and associates identify persons as Nazis, fascists, and white supremacists, which also includes any person Exoo and/or associates label homophobic, transphobic, etc. Once a target has been identified Exoo and associates set about to learn the personal identity of their unknown targets.

33. Once their targets' identity is discovered, Exoo and associates commence patterns of racketeering activities to extort employment terminations and compel school expulsions, by directing waves of threatening phone calls, emails, Twitter messages, social media comments at the target's employers, co-workers, and school administrators.

34. Enterprise associates "dogpile" their target's employers and co-workers with calls to their direct work phone number and email address with continual calls and emails to every employee and co-worker to extort the target's termination. The practice eliminates a company's ability to conduct business.

35. To extort their target's termination, enterprise associates harm his employer's existing and prospective business relationships by posting a flood of negative comments and reviews to the employer's social media and internet sites to use as leverage to extort their target's termination.

⁴ <https://twitter.com/ChrisExoo> (last accessed Sep. 15, 2020)

⁵ <https://twitter.com/ChristianExoo> (last accessed Sep. 15, 2020)

36. When an employer does not immediately terminate their target, Enterprise associates directly contact and threaten their target's employers' customers to shame them from continuing to do business with the target's employer.

37. As a result of Exoo's dox and direction of an enterprise engaged in threatening patterns of racketeering activities as described above, every Plaintiff has received explicitly violent threats against their life and the lives of their family, several Plaintiffs were physically attacked about their person, sustained damage to their homes and property, and all Plaintiffs were terminated from employment due to the enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities.

DANIEL D'AMBL Y

38. D'Ambly repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

39. Upon information and belief, the Exoo Enterprise targeted D'Ambly as a fascist and white supremacist at some point in or about January 2018. Thereafter, enterprise associates stalked D'Ambly to uncover his true identity, for the sole purpose of doxing him.

40. Upon information and belief, by September 2018, Twitter received dozens of complaints directly Tweeted to Twitter Support and Twitter Trust and Safety informing them that Exoo's former Twitter account @DoxSavage was aggressively doxing, which forced Twitter to investigate the accounts activities. Under Twitter's normal protocol, accounts being investigated for violating the TOS are prevented from Tweeting during the investigation.⁶

41. Twitter ignored their TOS and allowed @DoxSavage to continue Tweeting during their investigation.

⁶ <https://help.twitter.com/en/rules-and-policies/enforcement-options> (last accessed Sep. 15, 2020)

42. Upon information and belief, at some point on or about October 1, 2018, Gadde and Twitter agreed to allow @DoxSavage to undergo a name change in lieu of a third permanent. The unprecedented agreement to allow Exoo's username change to @AntiFashGordon under these circumstances was done to ensure he kept his approximate 15,000 @DoxSavage followers.

43. On October 11, 2018, @DoxSavage Tweeted a farewell announcement to his followers: "Hey folks—I just underwent a name change from @DoxSavage to @AntiFash Gordon. I'll be back tomorrow to expose more violent fascists who were on the ground in Providence on 10/6." The name change kept the Exoo Enterprise intact, and their ability to effectively conduct its patterns of racketeering activities was not harmed.

44. On October 29, 2018, at 11:49 a.m., @AntiFashGordon published a massive twenty-two count Tweet thread (a thread is a series of related Tweets) that doxed D'Ambly to his estimated 20,000 followers. The dox publicly disclosed for the first time D'Ambly's name, hometown, photograph, employer, occupation, employer's location, multiple telephone numbers for his employer, a labor union Referendum Board he chaired, and the names of the other Referendum Board members.

45. In the dox, @AntiFashGordon labeled D'Ambly a "Nazi" and directed the Exoo Enterprise associates to send harassing, intimidating, and threatening phone calls, and Tweets to the Daily News's Twitter username @NYDailyNews, to extort D'Ambly's termination. Exoo's dox directed:

- a. In the 19th Tweet, @AntiFashGordon directed his associates "stay on top of this, too. If you don't hear back from @NYDailyNews, keep tweeting at them." Call their printing facilities in Jersey City at (201) -* (number provided in original Tweet) and warn them about Daniel D'Ambly..."

- b. A follow up Tweet included a second telephone number for the New York Daily News and a subsequent Tweet included the direct telephone number to D'Ambly's print shop.
- c. Within minutes the Exoo Enterprise obeyed Exoo's directive and flooded @NYDailyNews and @Teamsters with Tweets and phone calls that threatened the Daily News with violent attacks if D'Ambly was not terminated.
- d. Upon information and belief, from October 29, 2018, to January 11, 2019, the Exoo Enterprise directed no less than fifty-four (54) threatening Tweets to @Daily News plus an unknown number of threatening phone calls.
- e. D'Ambly was never told of the threats or warned to take safety precautions by anyone from the Daily News or Tribune.

46. On October 30, 2018, without warning D'Ambly of the dangerous threats, Tribune engaged Insite Risk Management ("Insite") to investigate D'Ambly. At the conclusion of their investigation, Insite produced the "Private Investigation Report" ("Report") and provided it to the Tribune on December 4, 2018. The Report acknowledged @AntiFashGordon's doxing was the impetus for the investigation and confirmed D'Ambly's association with EHA. The Report included videos of D'Ambly and others using imprudent language during political rallies.

47. On or before January 8, 2019, EHA posted flyers on public bulletin boards in Princeton, New Jersey that announced an "It's okay to be white" protest march purportedly scheduled for January 12, 2019.

48. On January 9, 2019, @AntiFashGordon re-Tweeted the "It's okay to be white" march to his associates and again doxed D'Ambly by Tweeting, "If anyone wants their leaders name, it's Dan D'Ambly."

49. On January 10, 2019, @AntiFashGordon published a second Tweet that referenced EHA's purported march and directed his associates to "show up and shut down" the purported march "And please say hi to their leader, Dan D'Ambly for me."

50. On January 10, 2019, D'Ambly was called to an interview with Jean Nechvatal ("Nechvatal"), Tribune's Vice President, Talent Management & Learning and James R. Brill ("Brill"), Daily News's Sr. Vice President of Operations. D'Ambly was accompanied at the meeting by Union Steward Pete Cairnie. During the meeting, D'Ambly was confronted with content of the Report, but not informed of the report's existence. D'Ambly acknowledged using imprudent language in a private conversation during a protest.

51. On January 11, 2019, at 10:14 a.m., @AntiFashGordon again directed his associates to shut down EHA's purported January 12, 2019 "It's okay to be white" march and exhorted his associates "if you can, show up and show these pricks that we don't tolerate hate in our streets." The Tweet included @NYDailyNews and doxed D'Ambly's hometown again. Exoo encouraged violence to shut down the purported protest, but warned "Remember that the police won't protect us here."

52. Upon information and belief, at some point before 10:21 a.m. on January 11, 2019, Edward Bushey, Sr. Vice President, General Manager, Manufacturing and Distribution at Tribune delivered recordings of the death threats to the Daily News. The callers threatened D'Ambly and stated the Daily News was responsible for "any violence or blood spilled is also on your hands." One threatening caller's phone number was captured.

53. On January 11, 2019, from 9:30 a.m. to 10:14 a.m., Twitter usernames @hubcityantifa, @NYCAntifa, and @Nstricklanded replied via Tweet to @AntiFashGordon's instructions with coded messages that confirmed they followed his instructions and made threats.

54. Upon reason and belief, one of the death threat phone numbers is owned by a person who Tweeted mission confirmation to @AntiFashGordon on January 11, 2019.

55. On January 11, 2019, at 2:20 p.m., EHA Tweeted that the “It’s okay to be white” protest was a prank.

56. On January 11, 2019, at 3:30 p.m., D’Ambly was called to a second meeting with James Brill, Sr. Vice President of Operations for the Daily News to recap the previous days meeting. In the meeting, Brill issued D’Ambly a “Last and Final Warning” that stated the “ONLY reason that you are not being terminated immediately is because, thus far, we have not determined that your activities with NJEHA has occurred at work and/or derogatory comments were made about any co-workers.” The warning continued “should we learn that you engaged in any inappropriate speech or behavior in the workplace or with regard to any other employee, or if the Company or any of its employees suffer any backlash as a result of your association with the NJEHA, your conduct will be considered “work-related” and you will be terminated immediately.”

57. This meeting with Brill was a pre-text for D’Ambly’s termination. The meeting occurred five (5) hours after death threats were received, but Brill did not inform D’Ambly, because the Daily News intended to use the threats as evidence the company received “backlash” from D’Ambly’s conduct and was the “cause” of D’Ambly’s termination.

58. At 4:34 p.m. on January 11, 2019, @AntiFashGordon replied to EHA’s Tweet by threatening D’Ambly whereby @AntiFashGordon threatened “Regardless, I’m gonna spend the next week wrecking your fucking life, Dan D’Ambly.”

59. In the evening of January 11, 2019, the Exoo Enterprise’s extended campaign of violent Tweets and threats of physical violence to D’Ambly came to fruition and D’Ambly’s vehicle was “keyed” (scratched) and tires slashed while parked outside of his home on private property. An investigation report for a bias incident, criminal mischief, and harassment was filed with the South Brunswick Police Department.

60. D’Ambly reported to work the following day on January 12, 2019, but was not informed of the death threats received the day before.

61. On Sunday, January 13, 2019, at 10:16 a.m., five (5) days before D’Ambly’s official termination date @AntiFashGordon Tweeted to four of his associates that he “got a pretty reliable tip this morning that he’s not at the @NYDailyNews anymore...” in reference to D’Ambly.

62. On Monday, January 14, 2019, the Daily News called D’Ambly and told him not to report to work until informed otherwise.

63. On January 16, 2019, during a phone conference with Brill, Nechvatal, and a Union representative, D’Ambly was played the recorded death threats and asked to identify the caller. D’Ambly was unable to identify the caller, but said it was the behavior of “Antifa types.” Brill was scornful of D’Ambly’s inability to identify the caller and blamed him for the threats. D’Ambly was terminated during this phone conference.

64. On January 23, 2019, Patrick LoPresti, President of Local One-L informed the Daily News that they were appealing D’Ambly’s termination pursuant to terms of the Contract.

65. On or about January 25, 2019, D’Ambly received his “Termination of Employment” letter, signed by Brill, and dated January 22, 2019. The letter informed D’Ambly his termination was effective January 18, 2019. The termination letter is imbued with Brill’s animus for D’Ambly. In the letter, Brill stated “your choice to take these repulsive actions has now put our workplace and employees at risk of counter attacks by Antifa.”

66. The termination letter falsely stated the Daily News learned of the death threats on January 14, 2019, contrary to emails that confirm the Daily News learned of the threats on January 11, 2019.

67. In the termination letter, Brill claimed the death threats received on January 11, 2019, were the “cause” of D’Ambly’s termination, because the death threats meant D’Ambly “brought his activities” into the workplace, therefore, “we deem your actions to be work related and are terminating your employment for cause.”

68. At some point after January 23, 2019, the Union on behalf of D’Ambly filed a grievance with the American Arbitration Association, case number 01-19-0000-7178. The Union retained attorneys Thomas Kennedy (“Kennedy”) and Kate M. Swearngen (“Swearngen”) of Cohen, Weiss, and Simon, LLP (collectively Kennedy, Swearngen and Cohen. Weiss and Simon, LLP shall be referred to as “CWS”) to represent D’Ambly.

69. Thereafter, D’Ambly had a phone conference with Kennedy to discuss the case. D’Ambly was acquainted with Kennedy for approximately twenty years due to his Union activities. D’Ambly explained the threats he received, property damage, and that his tires were slashed. D’Ambly stated “Tom, this Antifa are terrorists...” Kennedy angrily responded, “I do not consider Antifa to be terrorists and if you are going to continue referring to them (Antifa) as terrorists we are going to end this call.” Kennedy scoffed at D’Ambly’s desire to have his employment reinstated at the Daily News.

70. At some point thereafter, D’Ambly had his first case discussion phone conference with Kate Swearngen, who assumed representation. Without prompting, Swearngen explicitly informed D’Ambly that “she doesn’t agree with his politics and she doesn't want to discuss them any further." Like Kennedy, Swearengen dismissed D'Ambly's wish to have his employment reinstated.

71. Kennedy and Swearengen's revulsion of D'Ambly directed their representation and they failed to adequately research basic facts favorable to D'Ambly's wish to be reinstated. CWS ignored Brill's misrepresentation and veracity of the claimed "cause" of their client's termination.

72. CWS failed to adequately investigate the sources of the doxing campaign. Had CWS engaged in reasonable investigation of the source of the dox they would have discovered @AntiFashGordon's January 13, 2019, announcement that D'Ambly was terminated, which was one day before the Daily News claimed they learned of the "cause" of D'Ambly's termination.

73. On or about July 15, 2019, D'Ambly dejectedly executed the "Separation Agreement and Mutual General Release" negotiated by CWS that paid D'Ambly a lump sum payment in exchange the Union would withdraw the pending arbitration case with prejudice.

74. As a result of Defendants' misconduct D'Ambly has suffered substantial personal and property damage and been severely financially harmed.

ZACHARY REHL

75. Rehl repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

77. Exoo directed enterprise associates to contact Rehl's former employer New York Life Insurance Company to extort Rehl's termination. As in all cases, enterprise associates complied with Exoo's directions and placed threatening calls, emails, and Tweets to New York Life Insurance Company.

78. Rehl was terminated from New York Life Insurance Company in September 2017.

79. On or about October 1, 2018, Rehl was doxed a second time, when he organized the "We the People" event that occurred in Philadelphia on November 17, 2018.

80. On November 14, 2018, Exoo followed up his October 1, 2018 dox with directions to his associates to counter protest the We the People event. Exoo directed enterprise associates to disrupt the event because "fascism is coming and only we can stop it."

81. On November 16, 2018, Exoo decided his community was being attacked, because "the city granted rally permits to fascists, and the cops will be there to protect them." Exoo then Tweeted the phrase "Who protects us? We protect us" a battle cry to get his associates to attack "We the People" event organizers.

82. At 12:41 a.m. on November 17, 2018, Rehl's safety was endangered when he was attacked by an Exoo associate who threw a brick through the front window of Rehl's home and spray painted the word "Nazi" on the front of his home.

86. On November 14, 2018, Exoo directed his associates to counter protest and disrupt the We the People the event, because "fascism is coming and only we can stop it."

87. On November 16, 2018, Exoo decided his community was being attacked, because "the city granted rally permits to fascists, and the cops will be there to protect them." Exoo then Tweeted the phrase "Who protects us? We protect us" as a battle cry to get his associates to attack "We the People" event organizers.

88. At 12:41 a.m. on November 17, 2018, AmRehl's safety was endangered when she was assaulted by an Exoo associate who threw a brick through the front window of AmRehl's home and spray painted the word "Nazi" on the front of her home.

92. On November 14, 2018, Exoo directed his associates to counter protest and disrupt the We the People event, because "fascism is coming and only we can stop it."

93. On November 16, 2018, Exoo decided his community was being attacked, because “the city granted rally permits to fascists, and the cops will be there to protect them.” Exoo then Tweeted the phrase “Who protects us? We protect us” as a battle cry to get his associates to attack “We the People” event organizers.

94. At 12:41 a.m. on November 17, 2018, K.R.’s safety was endangered when she was assaulted by an Exoo associate who threw a brick through the front window of her home and spray painted the word Nazi on the front of her home.

AARON WOLKIND

95. Wolkind repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

96. Wolkind was doxed in or about June 2019 and called a fascist, white supremacist, and Nazi, which is an idiotic assertion, because Aaron’s a Jew.

97. On July 3, 2019, Exoo re-posted Exoo’s dox and directed his associates to contact Wolkind’s employer Aerzen USA (“Aerzen”) to extort his termination. Immediately enterprise associates directed hundreds of phone calls and emails to Wolkind’s employer and his co-workers. Aerzen’s social media accounts and internet profiles were flooded with messages demanding his termination.

98. On November 28, 2019, Exoo re-doxed Wolkind with Aerzen’s direct phone number and the reminder to associates to “Use *67 to block your number.”

99. The November 28, 2019, dox dramatically increased the volume of messages posted to Aerzen’s social media and internet profiles so much so that it created a network security concern and caused Aerzen to temporarily shut down their social media and internet profiles.

100. The enterprise's threatening and harassing messages also caused Aerzen's management to close the Coatesville, Pa. building out of fear for employee safety.

101. To their credit, Aerzen did not immediately terminate Wolkind, but when enterprise associates discovered Wolkind was not terminated, they directed threats at Aerzen's clients demanding they stop doing business Aerzen or face consequences, and harassed and intimidated Aerzen's foreign subsidiaries.

102. Wolkind continues to receive threatening and harassing phone calls and the dox has prohibited Wolkind from obtaining new employment in his field. Prospective employers have cancelled scheduled interviews and pulled job offers when they perform an internet background search for Wolkind's name, because the first listing is Exoo's dox, which identifies him as a fascist, white supremacist, and a Nazi, but as stated above Aaron's a Jew.

STEVE HARTLEY

103. Hartley repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

104. Hartley was doxed on November 29, 2018, and labeled a Nazi, racist, terrorist and a threat to women and minorities. The dox included directives to dogpile Hartley's employer with calls, emails, and Tweets to demand his termination. In the dox, Hartley was identified as the president of the Philadelphia Proud Boys.

105. As is the pattern, enterprise associates complied with Exoo's directives and in December 2018, associates inundated Hartley's employer and co-workers with hundreds of phone calls and emails and flooded their social media and internet profiles with negative posts and reviews. Enterprise associates still contact Hartley's employer and co-workers with threatening and harassing phone calls and emails.

106. Hartley's home address and personal cell phone were also doxed, and he has received hundreds of threatening and harassing phone calls from enterprise associates, including direct threats on his life. The threatening and harassing communications continue to this day.

108. Exoo doxed Tucci on December 10, 2018, and associates directed harassing and threatening phone calls, emails, and Twitter messages to his employer. Enterprise associates called his employer more than 600 times on that first night, which effectively shut down the restaurant. Tucci's employer realized what was happening and told callers he was terminated.

109. In real time you can see the enterprise's conspiracy play out in their Tweets.

- a. Exoo doxed Tucci with directions to harass, threaten and intimidate his employer.
- b. Enterprise associates who called Tucci's employer, Tweeted confirmation to Exoo.
- c. When Tucci's employer stated Tucci was terminated, enterprise associates relayed that information to Exoo.

110. Exoo replied "Thanks for calling in the meantime it's very likely they're just hoping this blows over, so keep calling, folks!"

111. The following day Exoo directed his associates to "keep calling folks" and the enterprise continued the assault.

RICHARD SCHWETZ

112. Schwetz repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

113. The enterprise targeted Schwetz after he volunteered to clean up debris and litter at a Scott Presler Clean Up America event that occurred in Philadelphia on May 23, 2020.

114. As a result of participating in the cleanup event and being photographed with other Proud Boys that participated in the cleanup event, Schwetz was doxed in June 2020.

115. Enterprise associates directed harassing and threatening phone calls, emails, Twitter messages, and social media posts to Schwetz's co-workers located at the varied locations of his then employer Inova Payroll.

116. Amidst the initial wave of incoming harassing and threatening phone calls, emails, and Twitter messages, an enterprise associate threatened one specific Inova Payroll employee by posting a photograph of the employee with her young son.

117. The employee had no relationship with Schwetz whatsoever, caused Inova Payroll to reasonably fear for its employees' safety.

118. Exoo doxed Schwetz a second time on September 21, 2020, with further instructions to enterprise associates to conduct a second round of harassing and threatening messages. The threats are still visible on Twitter.

MATTHEW REIDINGER

122. Barbosa repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

123. Exoo doxed Barbosa on June 22, 2019, as trans-phobic, because he was photographed at Philadelphia's gay pride parade. As always, Exoo's directed enterprise associates to contact Barbosa's employer to demand his termination. Associates immediately followed Exoo's directions, including one enterprise associate who left her name and telephone number.

124. Barbosa's home address and cell phone numbers for him and his wife were posted to a webpage phonezapp.noblog.org (no longer available) and Barbosa's wife received threatening calls on her personal cell phone.

125. The number of contacts his former employer received is unknown at this point, but the volume was substantial, and Barbosa was immediately called into a meeting with a company executive and a human resources representative.

126. Barbosa was terminated on June 27, 2019.

SEAN-MICHAEL DAVID SCOTT

127. Scott repeats and realleges the facts pertinent to all plaintiffs as alleged above in paragraphs 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

128. Exoo doxed Scott on September 16, 2019 and his employer publicly confirmed his employment termination on September 17, 2019.

129. Exoo associates threatened and intimidated the property manager for Scott's apartment. The property manager was fearful of repercussions and demanded Scott vacate the premises.

130. On September 17, 2019, Scott's home was attacked with graffiti and vandalized.

131. On April 16, 2020, Scott was attacked at his home for the second time and his car's tires were slashed and windows broken.

134. Enterprise associates immediately followed Exoo's directives and made hundreds of threatening and harassing phone calls and over 1,000 harassing emails to Hugo's employer demanding Hugo's termination. As in all cases, the volume of phone calls prevented Hugo and his co-workers from performing their jobs. Hugo was terminated in March 2020.

135. Hugo continues to receive threatening and harassing phone calls from enterprise associates who threaten Hugo that they will never let him work again and will force him to live in a box.

Loudon was employed as the Director of Managed Care at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia.

138. During a global health emergency and pandemic Exoo doxed Loudon's hospital employer on November 2, 2020, and as in all cases associates immediately flooded Loudon's employer and co-workers with harassing and threatening phone calls, emails, social media posts.

139. Loudon who does not have a Twitter account was unaware of Exoo's dox until he was called to a Zoom meeting with his hospital's Vice-President and a human resources representative on November 2, 2020. 194. Upon information and belief, multiple generations of Exoo’s family are or were employed by St. Lawrence University and Exoo’s activities are well known to St. Lawrence faculty and administrators, who allow Exoo to direct the enterprise from St. Lawrence property, from his place of employment, during his normal work hours using St. Lawrence equipment and information technology. St. Lawrence consents to Exoo’s use of St. Lawrence property to direct the enterprise, and participates in the Exoo Enterprise, because they believe the patterns of racketeering activities helps St. Lawrence’s achieve their global mission.

195. Exoo uses his employment, teaching, and lecturing at St. Lawrence with the consent and approval of St. Lawrence to recruit students to join the Exoo Enterprise as associates. In concert with other associates, the Exoo Enterprise, directed by Exoo created and maintained systematic links for the common purpose of doxing targeted fascists and white supremacists, and then threaten, harass, and extort others to cause harm to their targets.

196. At all times relevant, Gadde was the only Twitter employee authorized to permanently ban Twitter users.⁷

197. Exoo is and was well known to Gadde and Twitter, because Gadde and Twitter have twice before permanently banned Exoo due to habitual doxing.

198. Gadde and Twitter agreed to associate with the Exoo Enterprise when they breached their own TOS to conspire with a recidivist ban evader, and permitted the enterprise leader to create ban evasion account “@AntiFashGordon,” which Gadde and Twitter knew was purposely created to dox unsuspecting persons, in order to direct associates in patterns of racketeering activities.

199. Gadde and Twitter associate and participate in the Exoo Enterprise’s patterns of racketeering, by virtue of their affirmative decision to allow Exoo, a three-time ban evader and known habitual doxer, create a ban evasion account in direct contradiction of their TOS and enforcement rules, through which, the Exoo Enterprise conducts its patterns of racketeering.

200. Upon information and belief Gadde and Twitter have received hundreds and likely thousands of complaints directly to their individual Twitter accounts and through Twitter’s TSC regarding the Exoo Enterprise’s doxing. But Gadde and Twitter choose to ignore the avalanche of doxing and abusive behavior complaints and refuse to enforce their own policies in order to facilitate the patterns of racketeering activities directed by known ban evasion account, @AntiFashGordon.

201. Gadde personally participates in, and benefits from the Exoo Enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities, because she has publicly stated her personal disdain for fascists and white supremacists, and she is "very, very focused on that...the KKK, the American Nazi Party," because that "was what my parents had to deal with" where she grew up on the Texas-Louisiana border.⁸ Gadde participates in the Exoo Enterprise, because of an Oresteian desire to avenge her parents perceived mistreatment. Gadde and Twitter are the lynchpin of the Exoo Enterprise. Without Gadde and Twitter's consent and participation, the Exoo Enterprise could not conduct its patterns of racketeering activities.

202. Twitter benefits economically from the Exoo Enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities, because @AntiFashGordon has an extremely large Twitter following, one of the largest follower bases of all Twitter users, and the account drives a tremendous amount of internet traffic to Twitter. Greater traffic to their site increases Twitter's ad revenue.

203. Twitter benefits socially from the Exoo Enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities because the Exoo Enterprise's doxing of fascists and white supremacists imparts a social benefit on Twitter as it is seen as a defender of "marginalized communities" and provides cover for their stated business goal of creating what Twitter describes as "safer" conversations.

204. The Exoo Enterprise engages in and affects interstate commerce, because, inter alia, it threatens violence to persons and property of others throughout the United States in furtherance of a plan that reaches into the several states to disrupt economic activity. The Exoo Enterprise has caused severe economic hardship to Plaintiffs and negatively impacted local economies throughout the United States.

205. Pursuant to and in furtherance of their violent doxing campaign, Defendants directed and participated in the affairs of the Exoo Enterprise through patterns of racketeering activity, including multiple acts indictable under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1951 (Interference with commerce by threats or violence) and 1952 (use of interstate facilities to conduct unlawful activity).

206. The conduct of the Exoo Enterprise described above constitutes “racketeering activity” within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 1961(1). Defendants’ decisions and activity in connection with the Exoo Enterprise to routinely conduct its transactions in such a manner constitutes “patterns of racketeering activity” within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 1961(5).

207. By virtue of these violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c), Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for three times the damages sustained, plus the costs of this suit, including reasonable attorneys’ fees.

208. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants patterns of racketeering activity Plaintiffs have suffered adverse consequences and continue to suffer adverse consequences in an amount to be determined at trial, but which is in excess of $75,000.00. Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages, equitable and declaratory relief, punitive damages, costs, and reasonable attorneys’ fees in an amount to be determined at trial, but which is in excess of $75,000.00.

214. Defendants sought to and have engaged in the commission of, and continue to commit overt acts, including the following unlawful racketeering predicate acts:

(as to all Plaintiffs against defendants Vijaya Gadde and Twitter, Inc.)

218. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporates herein by reference each and every one of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 217 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

219. Exoo is a notorious and infamous doxer, who relies on Twitter to dox unsuspecting people and direct his enterprise.

220. Due to habitual doxing and abusive behavior, Twitter has previously permanently banned two accounts controlled by Exoo, @ChrisExoo and @ChristianExoo.

221. Upon information and belief, Twitter received hundreds of complaints that Exoo was habitually doxing under Twitter username @DoxSavage.

222. In lieu of a third permanent ban Twitter agreed to allow Exoo to undergo a username change from @DoxSavage to @AntifashGordon, contrary to Twitter's TOS.

223. Subsequent to Twitter's agreement to allow Exoo to change his Twitter username to @AntiFashGordon, Vijaya Gadde and Twitter's Safety Council have received numerous doxing complaints.

224. Gadde was the only person at Twitter with authority to decide permanent bans and she knew Exoo is a habitual doxer, but she ignored that knowledge and agreed to allow him to change his username and continue doxing.

225. Gadde recklessly ignored Twitter's TOS against ban evasion accounts and allowed Exoo to change his name from @DoxSavage to @AntiFashGordon, thereby, entrusting Exoo with the instrumentality to direct the Exoo Enterprise's patterns of racketeering activities.

226. As a direct and proximate result of defendant Gadde and Twitter's negligent entrustment Plaintiffs have suffered adverse consequences and continue to suffer adverse consequences. Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages, equitable and declaratory relief, punitive damages, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees in an amount to be determined at trial, but which is in excess of $75,000.00.

COUNT XII

227. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporates herein by reference each and every one of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 226 with the same force and effect as if set forth in detail herein again.

232. Twitter allowed Exoo to create a ban evasion account fully aware he was a habitual doxer, who used Twitter to harm others.

240. Defendant CWS neglected to perform necessary case research, legal research, and investigation of the accusations against D'Ambly.

241. As a result of CWS's inadequate legal research and investigation they failed to protect D'Ambly from the extortionate and criminal conduct of others.

242. As a result of CWS's failure to adequately investigate D'Ambly's doxing they failed to learn that @AntiFashGordon publicly announced D'Ambly's termination on January 13, 2019, which occurred five days before his official termination date, and one day before the purported "cause" of his termination was discovered.

243. CWS failed to challenge Brill's blatant misrepresentations regarding the timing of the alleged 'cause' of D'Ambly's termination.

244. CWS's revulsion of D'Ambly and his political beliefs caused them to ignore an obvious racially discriminatory pre-textual termination spotlighted by the private investigation, last and final warning, and falsely claimed cause of D'Ambly's termination.

245. As a direct and proximate result of CWS's legal malpractice that flowed from their firmwide enmity of D'Ambly's political beliefs D'Ambly has suffered adverse consequences and continues to be damaged. D'Ambly is entitled to compensatory damages,
